

Walking in the Old Town

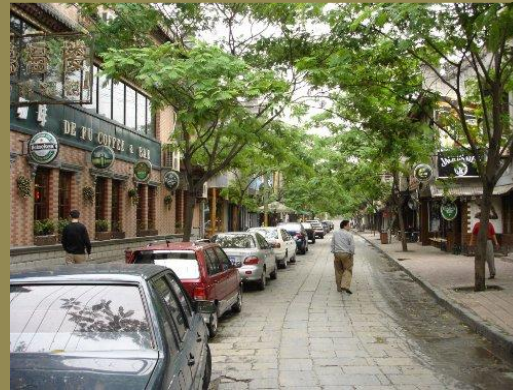

The Xiangzhimiao Taoist Temple

Pancake Stand in Muslim Street

The South Gate of the City Wall

The Defuxiang Bar Street

Our tour starts from Bell tower, a building that stands at the city centre for over 600 year. On the way, we will pass by the south gate of the ancient city wall, the infamous bar street, the wicker ware market , the drum tower, and the Muslim Quarter. You will also go to visit one of the oldest Taoist temples in existence, the Great Mosque, and you will learn the traditional art of paper cutting from some of Xi'an's oldest residents. To spice up the tour, we will try many different kinds of snacks that this route has to offer. Our tour ends with a delicious meal at one of the most famous dumpling restaurants in China!
